

When I receive unwanted pornographic email, or email solicitations for pornography, I would like an email address to which I can forward what I have received for your evaluation and prosecution. Is there such an email address. It would certainly make more sense than to try to write a detailed description.